We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit.

Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land

ABOUT PATRICIA O'CALLAGHAN:

Patricia O'Callaghan's fifteen-year career has taken her across genres and continents. As a speaker of French, Spanish, and German, her concert repertoire is diverse and eclectic.

She has sung with the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, Don Byron Quartet, and is a frequent collaborator with the Gryphon Trio. She has performed in venues ranging from London's Royal Opera House to New York's Le Poisson Rouge.

As a Resident Artist at Toronto's Soulpepper Theatre for six years, her responsibilities included teaching, mentoring, producing, curating, performing, and developing new work.

As a songwriter she has worked with Dennis Lee, David Braid, John Millard, Steven Page, Njo, Kong Kie, and as an interpreter she has premiered works by Omar Daniel, Christos Hatzis, and R. Murray Schaffer, among others.

She has six solo CDs and many collaborations. Recent albums include Matador: The Songs of Leonard Cohen, Deepest December, a Christmas Album, and the recently JUNO nominated Corona Divinae Misericordiae, by David Braid.
